1. The city of Pitesti is the second largest military center in Rumania. The following military installations are located there:

   a. Air Force Officers School

   b. Parachute School

   c. Armored Military School

2. North of Targsorul Nou between the road and railway track there was, in 1952, a large parking lot for military vehicles (used and new trucks). The lot was surrounded by a concrete wall and was guarded by Soviet Army personnel. The lot contained several thousand vehicles. The troops were billeted in the neighboring area.
